WHAT'S NEW

Graduation and Awards Ceremony

June 9, at 7 p.m. in the Lilian Piercey Concert Hall the Ceremony commences. Students should wear their uniforms and sit together. Please be present by 6:30. Graduates should arrive by 6, and are not required to wear uniforms.

There is a reception immediately following here at the Conservatory. Margie Power has graciously invited all to an "After-Party" at their house, 20 Rockwood Ave in Halifax.

Report Cards & Yearbooks

June 10, from 9-11 report cards and yearbooks are distributed. There is no set time to arrive or leave providing you are here between 9-11. Please remember that it takes time to sign yearbooks. Uniforms are optional.

Graduates: Yousef Mousavi

Yousef has been a student of KVA since Grade 7. He is passionate about music, and is currently a finalist in the Viewfinder's. He is a member of the AC Slater Band and his music and CD's can be heard at www.MySpace.com/arammusic. He will take a year to study under the mentorship of Dinuk Wijeratne and others for improvisation, jazz, music theory and guitar. He intends to attend University of Berkeley in Boston, McGill or Julliard.

Abtin Parnia

Abtin has consistently excelled in the sciences. He was recognized as submitting the best project in Human Science at the 23 and 24 Seminars at Allame Helli in Tehran. He was also the manager of the Biology Department for the 24th Seminar. He plans on pursuing a medical career, and has applied to Toronto University, MacMaster's and Dalhousie where he has been accepted.
